

INFANT BAPTISM COVENANT
OGDEN DUNES COMMUNITY CHURCH

As Christian parents we desire that our child (ren) receive the sacrament of Christian baptism, and we make the following promises as we bring our child (ren) to Christ:

- I. We will attend worship regularly in order that we may learn more about the Christian faith in which we baptize our child (ren) and, through the inspiration of worship, be better prepared to guide our child (ren) in the Christian faith by our own example in church attendance.
- II. We will study the Christian faith so that as our child (ren) matures we will be better able to answer questions and guide our child (ren)'s thinking toward a vital faith in God. So that we will be better able to do this, we will make an effort to read the Bible on a regular basis.
- III. We will encourage our child (ren) to attend Sunday School and other Christian events, actively supporting and participating in the Christian Education of our child (ren).
- IV. We will model the Christian lifestyle at home as well as within the church.

In public affirmation of the above, we agree to make the following promise during a worship service in which the sacrament of baptism is celebrated:

“Relying on God’s grace, do you promise to live the Christian faith, and to teach that faith to your child (ren)? I do.”
