"Does Courtesy Matter?"

Does courtesy matter? Yes, it certainly does! 1 Corinthians 13 tells us how "true love" is courteous. "Courtesy" is the lubricant that eases friction arising from differences among one another. It prevents differences from sparking strike. It is the single ingredient that is accepted without question in every land, every home, every office and in every heart in the world. It is an enchantment that brings out the best in everyone. To be courteous is to demonstrate in Life and Lifestyle, the wonderful Grace of God.

As a boy, Desmond Tutu saw how blacks were treated under South Africa's apartheid system. One day, while walking down the street with his mother, a white Anglican priest stepped aside in a differential manner and tipped his hat to his mother. Tutu was surprised. He asked his mother: "Why was that white man so nice to you?" "That man is a minister of the Gospel," his mother answered. "People like that are courteous to everyone."

Tutu promised himself then and there that he too would become a minister of the gospel. He went on to become an Anglican Bishop, a human rights activist and a Nobel Prize winner.

The Bible says: "Remind them (God's people) to speak evil of no one, to avoid quarreling, to be gentle, and to show courtesy to everyone" (Titus 3:1, 2).

- So let's be courteous within our Families. Do not take each other for granted.
- Be an example of courtesy to your Children, by teaching and modeling courtesy!
- Be courteous in your Work Place. Smile. Say "hello." Learn your co-workers names. Even if you forget a name, don't let that stop you from being friendly.
- Be courteous on The Road. "Road Rage" has made headlines as people take out their anger and frustration on others with whom they share the streets and highways. The Bible says: "Those who are slow to anger calm contentions" (Proverbs 15:18).
- Be courteous to Strangers, the Elderly and those who are Handicapped. You are "God's Example of Courtesy" to a rude and selfish world.

This Sunday recognition will be given to the choir as well as the dedication of their new robes.

Have a blessed week. See you in church Sunday.
