"The Clock of Life"

2015 is almost behind us. Its time can never be recovered. Time wasted means Existence wasted; Time used means Life used. When you kill time, remember it has no resurrection life. Do you know that a ten-minute coffee break five days a week amounts to forty-three and one-third hours during a year - over a week's vacation in time? Consider how you have used "the clock of your life" in 2015.

Do you have regrets? If so, you cannot change the clock of time for this past-year. But there is some good news. No Matter What Mistakes You Have Made in the Past in 2015, You Do Have A Spotless Future in 2016!

I read some time ago an ad from a company in Chicago. It stated:

"You have 24 hours to live. Today, that is. So what are you doing with your time? Are you helping another human being toward the dignity you want for yourself? Are you doing anything to overcome the hate in this world – with love? Break the hate habit; love your neighbor."

As the year comes to an end, consider the following:

- The Value of Time
- The Success of Perseverance
- The Dignity of Simplicity
- The Warmth of Character
- The Power of Kindness
- The Influence of Example
- The Virtue of Patience

As Benjamin Franklin rightly said: "Do you love life? Then do not squander Time. For that's the stuff life is made of." Use your time wisely.

Have a Happy New Year!
